“ Dear Mary and boys (and all),

So sorry to learn of Dicky's death. As distant cousins our memories are from long ago, but all filled with laughter, play and joy. Having just lost our mother, and cousin from the other other side of the family, I am feeling a bit of your grief. You will all be in our prayers these next few days, and going forward. May God comfort you and give you peace.

“ Dear Mary, Children, Grandchildren and Family,

It's saddens me when I learned about the passing of your husband, father, grandfather and my childhood friend. Despite the many years, which have passed too quickly, and the miles between our homes, I fondly remember the friendship and big hearted person Dicky was. He could be stubborn at times, but that characteristic also made him special. Deep down inside was a drive to compete and win in whatever he played from softball, to sandlot football, and yes, even playing cards.

My wife and I will pray for you, as you take time to celebrate the many blessings Dicky has delivered over the years. You have our deepest sympathy and May God Bless you all.

Sincerely,
