

Aceyn Jesus Ausbrook

January 14, 2023

An amazing young man, who was so much more than just a good kid, was senselessly taken from his family on January 14, 2023. Aceyn Jesus Ausbrook, 19, was born on September 4, 2003, of Monroeville, PA. leaves behind his heartbroken mother, Anna-Marye Levier (Mortty) of Monroeville PA.; brothers Christian 12, and Victor 5, who he loved to no end, always looking out for them, and helping prepare them for the world; he also leaves behind his sister, Rashai Ausbrook 20, of Penn Hills, and his father, Andre Ausbrook (Carla) of Orlando, FL. He was fortunate enough to have had multiple grandparents who all had a hand in watching him grow into the man he was; Gary and Eloisa Creighton of Monroeville, Fred Levier of Butler, Rev. Mortty and Andrea Ivy of Monroeville, and Shelly Beck of Fort Lauderdale. He also leaves behind multiple aunts, uncles, great aunts & uncles along with multiple cousins. The family would also like to extend their gratitude to Judy Ribic, who donated the plot for Aceyn's burial. Aceyn could talk to anybody about anything and did so with a smile that would melt your heart. He made friends with everyone and if you were fortunate enough to be his friend, he had your back along with whoever you were with. He always held the door for people, was willing to help do anything and never failed to help his grandma on the steps. He is the only 19-year-old I know who had his phone background as a photo of himself and his little brothers. The youngest doesn't understand yet, but the other is 12 and beyond devastated. He looked up to Aceyn so much, and Aceyn was working on setting a wonderful example for him. A few years ago, Aceyn started a lawn mowing business, which he planned to build and keep the clientele so that when his younger brother was old enough, he could take over and have a source of income for himself, hoping that then his younger brother would do the same for the youngest boy. This is just one example of how thoughtful he was and how much he cared about his family. He was kind, thoughtful, generous, polite, and all around just a joy to be around. You couldn't speak to him without smiling. You can see by the outpouring of love by the community on Facebook how many lives he touched. His life had just begun yet had such an impact on everyone he encountered. Family and friends will be received on Saturday, January 21st from 5-9 p.m., and on Sunday, January 22nd from 1-4 and 6-9 p.m. at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. “ My heart is broken for Aceyn's family. My kids have known him since daycare as a small boy and it was amazing to witness how he was evolving into this beautiful young man. Aceyn was kind and compassionate always to my kids and we always were excited to see him. We are devastated and the world has lost a bright light. May you rest in peace young man and I hope your family knows how many hearts you've captured.
