“ Dear Denise, Esther and family, I am so sorry to hear about Adam. I just love the photo attached here...how wonderfully appropriate. Although I just a little girl when the family opened the restaurant I certainly remember some wonder meals there with my parents. I grew up in Pitcairn until we moved to Monroeville, but my grandmother lived there until she died. She owned a restaurant on Broadway for almost 30 years (Grahams Restaurant until 1950). Mary Amantea (I'm not sure of the relationship to you Adam) was a very good friend of hers and worked at the restaurant for years (I believe she was the pie baker). My grandmother, Lillian Graham, and Mary remained friends over the years. Please know that I am thinking of you all and send my sincerest sympathies. Your neighbor and friend,
