“ I worked for Adrienne for almost two years and in that time we became very good friends. She was very easy to talk to and also a good listener. I will miss her. I made her a promise that I would light a candle for her on her birthday every year and I intend to keep that promise. Oct. 23. I am so thankful for the time we spent together. I will truly miss her. What was funny was her two sisters names were Helen and Elizabeth and when I told her that was my name she felt it was an omen that we were together. We will meet again someday in Heaven.

“ It's still hard for me to believe you are no longer with us Adrienne. I will so miss our usual meeting on Monday mornings! We shared a lot in these past 6 months. You were so much braver than you ever gave yourself credit for! I hope that you are wrapped in the arms of the God you loved so much in your life! I like to think of the reunion with your sisters, your parents and your dear Elmer. Rest in peace Adrienne! You are so unforgettable!!
