“ Gordon and David, I am very sorry to hear of your loss. We have not seen each other in many years but often reflect on the time I spent with your family. Prayers for your families and fond memories of your mom and dad will be with me.

“ Agnes was one of the sweetest persons I have ever known. She always had a smile on her face when talking with her and was constantly laughing She never had a bad thing to say about another person. From what I have read about "Eastern Star", she was the perfect example of the mission of the members of that organization...."the spirit of fraternal love and the desire to work together for good." She will be badly missed by everyone who knew her. Ed Graham
