Dr. Albert P. Nous, of Monroeville passed away on Friday, October 22, 2021. Beloved husband of Janice L. (Jones) Nous, father of Mark A. Nous, Douglas Griffin (Paul), Dawn Marie Nous (Ron) and Deborah Lee Papalia (Joseph); Grandfather of Joseph and Dominic Papalia, and Alexa Marie Nous; brother of Kent Peer Nous. Albert served in the U.S. Army as a Staff Sergeant. After the Army, he entered college and became a professor at Pitt in the Education Department. From 1984, he created and headed the Regional Computer Resource Center, which was a pioneer in teaching teachers how to use Apple and Microsoft computers in the classroom. He was also an author of books and papers on a wide range of topics. He had just begun a new project before he passed away. Dr. Nous was very active in his church, North American Martyrs, and served there as a Eucharistic minister who delivered the Sacrament to shut-ins and hospital patients. Al was a devoted, husband, father, and grandfather. He also loved dogs and cats and had several Yorkies he treasured. We are happy to know he is reunited with the first of these, his beloved Frasier. All who met him were captured by his wonderful sense of humor and kindness. He was generous and helpful to all he met. He was an exceptional man who will be deeply missed by many. “ Dear Janice Nous,
I am truly sorry for our loss, The great Man, Dr Albert Paul Nous. Professor, whom I value and love, and whom I see as my teacher, advisor and one of our family at the University, touched my life and family's life. I just learned with sadness that we lost Albert Paul Nous. I worked as an assistant at The University of Pittsburgh, where I was a doctoral student. We are deeply saddened by loss of Albert Paul Nous.

May God have mercy on him and make his resting place heaven.
