

Andrew S. D'Andries

August 24, 2023

Andrew "Andy" D'Andries, 43, of Monroeville, passed away suddenly from an allergic reaction to a bee sting on Thursday, August 24, 2023. Beloved husband of Marla D'Andries. Amazing father of Cheyenne Parquet, Larissa DiPiazza, and Josie D'Andries. Adoring grandfather of Elliot Stritzinger. Son of Cathey Arnold, and the late Bob Arnold and William D'Andries. Brother of Bill (Vicky) D'Andries and Dan (Erin) D'Andries. Uncle of Sara D'Andries, Allen Kane, and Isabella D'Andries. Nephew and Cousin to many, and Friend to everyone he's ever spoken to. Andy always had an innate selfless and giving nature which led him to proudly join the Army after high school. He always had a passion for helping his community and had been a member of the fire department since the age of 14, also working for the Municipality for over 20 years. He enjoyed camping and making friends at Kiski River Campsites. He would do anything for anyone, even if he didn't know them. Andy was a big guy with an equally huge heart. He will continue to help others in his passing as he did always. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Gary Sinise Foundation or the Tunnels to Towers Foundation. Friends will be received on Sunday, August 27, 2023, from 1-4 and 6-9 p.m. at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (412-372-2100). A Firefighter's Service will be held at 8 p.m. Condolences may be made at www.corlfuneralchapel.com.

“ My father worked with his daughter. I’ve gone to their house a couple times and Andy was also smiling and happy during them. I also believe he’s been there when I went to work with my dad. Andy was such a kind soul and he was also a man of joy. He didn’t deserve it this early. But may his spirit go too lighten heaven with his joy and smiles. I pray heaven is blessed with the same bless he gave his family. My condolences and sorry s are to his girls,Wife,Parents,Brothers and family. You all are so strong and I’m dearly sorry.

“ I haven't seen Andy in quite a while, but when I did he would have that goofy smile and a huge hug to give. I can't believe you are gone. My heart goes out to his family on their loss. Run with the angels my friend. (Try not to cause any trouble)

“ On the worst day of my life, at the very deepest time of challenge, Andy came running to my door, offering his assistance. I never asked, he just appeared after hearing my 911 call for assistance. I hadn't even finished the call. He really was an angel in my time of need. I'll always remember him for that. But, I hope the sheer joy of his laugh stays with me just as long. My heart breaks for Marla and the girls.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Andy’s passing! Honestly it crushes my heart.. He was always so nice to me when I was on the fire dept with him. he also always kept up with my short football career with the Pittsburgh Passion.. He was just an all round awesome guy! His whole family were just such good people.. I will be keeping them all in my thoughts.. I am so sad for his kids too.. I lost my father younger and it hurt me so bad.. I know the pain they will be going through.. One day at a time girls.. Make your dad proud

What a beautiful & touching ceremony for Andrew, yesterday. All the Firemen & women & Police attending were quite a sight to see their detication to their fellow workers. Hearing the Fireman's Prayer rrecited by all of them brought tears to all. And the last call & salute to Andrew will stay forever in my heart. Thanks to all. Love all of you. Aunt Ann.
