“ Aunt Annie you were one of the kindest people I will ever meet. Your heart and your door were always open. I will forever cherish the many fond memories and remember your laugh and warm smile. I hope you were greeted with trumpets and a walk through a beautiful rose garden when you reached the pearly gates. Rest in peace my dearest Aunt Annie. ❤️

*Peace to you all at this time.
Annie...my favorite baker! She taught me how to cut the dough and roll out those lady locks just right and how to make mashed potatoes with NO lumps!
You shall truly be missed.*
