

Anna Mary Strapple

August 30, 2025

Anna Mary Strapple (Wagner), 84, of Monroeville, passed away on Saturday, August 30, 2025, in her home. She is predeceased by her loving husband of 47 years, Edward P. Strapple. Anna was raised on a Dairy Farm in Dilltown, Buffington Township, Indiana County, a daughter of the late John C and Hulda (Duncan) Wagner. After graduating from United High School, she worked for manufacturing companies, Robertshaw and Gibson Electric. Once her daughter was born, Anna devoted herself to her family and was a loving homemaker. She was a member of North American Martyrs Church and years later, worked for the Days Inn hotel, in Monroeville. She loved being outdoors and was always a farm girl at heart. Anna was preceded in death by her brothers Ed, Ken and John Wagner; sisters Freda Montgomery and Helen Trout; and grandpups Mango and Riptide. She is survived and missed by her daughter, Mary Strapple-Bru and husband, Frank; grandpups Tiki and Seaweed; sisters, Faye Butz and Bertha Nedrich and numerous nieces and nephews. Family and friends will be received on Wednesday, September 24, 2025, from 10 a.m. until the time of the blessing service at 11 a.m., at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (412-372-2100). Interment will follow at Good Shepherd Cemetery.

“ Just hearing the passing of a dear friend Anna. We first meet while working together at Days Inn, and have been friends ever since. She will truly be missed.

“ I have fond memories of working beside Aunt Anna stacking bales of hay on the wagon, sitting beside her on the combine sacking oats (very dusty job), milking cows, picking sweet corn and so many more. You always remembered my birthday, you and John were so much better at that than I was.
