

Anthony Eugene Marino

January 21, 2026

Anthony Eugene Marino, 86, passed away peacefully on January 21, 2026, at his home, surrounded by loved ones.

Born and raised in Hazelwood, Pennsylvania, Anthony was known for his engaging personality and deep pride in his Italian heritage. He was passionate, charismatic, and genuinely sociable. He was someone who loved striking up conversations and connecting with people wherever he went. His presence left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him.

Anthony was preceded in death by his parents, Antoinette and Nicola Marino, and his siblings, Evelyn Martine, Arthur Marino, Clara Colson, and Rose Edwards. He is survived by his beloved wife, Linda Marino (MacEvoy), and their children; daughter, Tarah Kurimsky (Marino), her husband, Kevin Kurimsky; and son, Anthony Marino II, his wife, Chelsey Marino; and his three granddaughters, Kamryn Rose, Kendyl Lin, and Kaydence Marie Kurimsky.

Anthony was a dedicated and hardworking businessman who owned and operated his own company for over 30 years. Prior to that, he spent many years in sales, most notably in retail and clothing, selling men's suits.

Anthony lived life fully and with intention. He was an avid gym-goer, loved spending time at the Italian-American Club with friends, and took great joy in cooking, photography, and sharing stories with anyone willing to listen. Most of all, he cherished time with his family, whether gathered around a meal or simply enjoying each other's company.

Tom and I wish to extend our deepest sympathy to you all with Tony's passing. I can still remember the day you got married. He was always so charming and I know he will be missed by all he touched. It's hard to be so far away when things like this happen but I hope you know how much our friendship has meant to us. Take care of yourself and know that now Tony is at peace. Love, Tom and “ Aunt Linda , Tara, Anthony, and your families. I can't tell you how sorry I am for the loss of your husband, father, and grandfather. I know you are going to miss him but keep his memories, the laughter you all shared the stories. This will help with the pain along with your faith and family and friends. I know I am going to miss Uncle Anthony sooo much. He was also my God father. The biggest thing I am going to miss is me calling him every few weeks. The stories and us laughter we shared on every phone call and reminiscing of of so many things. I treasured every call. Uncle Anthony i miss you and love you. I know you are at piece now and laughing like crazy with your sister brother and parents. Aunt Linda Tara and Anthony you ALL WILL ALWAYS be in my heart and prayers. I Love You. ❤️🙏💋😊
