“ Dear Norma, Nathan, Caitlin, Ian and the rest of your family, This world is now a bit less brighter. Brian always stood out in any crowd, and had such a strong influence on so many folks. He'd do anything for anyone and not for the personal recognition, but just because he genuinely loved people and wanted to help those he could. He was so very proud of you all, and that greatly contributed to the strength he possessed as he overcame whatever obstacles he encountered. May your memories provide comfort and solitude, and may God's blessing be with you as we all embrace Brian's life with us. Rest in God's peace my friend, and thank you for the times we shared.

“ Norma, Nathan, Caitlin, Ian and family,
Sharon and I were very shocked and saddened by the passing of Brian. No words can express the sorrow of your loss, our prayers and thoughts will be with you in the coming days. Saw Brian last during a family reunion in 2018, full of life with a smile on his face; this is how he will be remembered.

“ Norma, Nathan, Caitlin, and Ian so sorry that we are not there with you to help Mourn, Remember and Celebrate the life of Brian. He will leave a void in the lives of many, not just our family. Sometimes Brian marched to the beat of a different drum and had strong convictions on many subjects. Although he and I would disagree, we never lost our love and respect for each other. May you and he find peace and solitude as he passes on and lives forever in the Grace of God and in our hearts.

*Dear Norma, Nathan, Caitlin, Ian and family,
Brian was such a strong influence in the lives of so many. While he didn't always have it easy, he continued to overcome whatever obstacles he encountered, and inspired those around him. He always stood out in a crowd, and he earned and deserved the respect of everyone who knew him. He'd do anything for anybody and not for any personal recognition, but just because he loved others. He was so proud of each of you, as you all brought him such great joy. May his memory be a blessing, and may he rest forever in God's peace.*
