“ I think my favorite memories of Carol are the wonderful times we had at the pool every summer. Pool parties, card games and girls nights, we had lots of laughs and even some tears! I have missed seeing Carol since we moved to cranberry, but never far from my thoughts. Carol and Larry can continue their journey as they missed out on so long ago. Our thoughts and prayers are with the boys and their families that lost an important part of their lives

“ Carol and Larry Ehnen were such special people to our family. They both were so full of energy and love for their boys. The only words I can think of at this time is "Special" to us and so many people they knew. Rest in Peace Carol. You will always live in my memories.
