

Carolyn Lehr

June 8, 2013

Carolyn M. Lehr

Carolyn M. Lehr, age 80, of Monroeville, a beloved mother, wife, and daughter, passed away June 8, 2013, after a long illness. She was born and raised in Buffalo, New York, and was the daughter of the late Albert J. McKibbin and Carolyn Anne Moran. Carolyn graduated from The State University of New York in Buffalo where she received her B.A. in Education. She taught special education in San Diego, where she met and married, Naval, Lt. Commander Ronald F. Lehr. She loved and devoted her life to her children: Bruce M. Lehr of St. Louis, MO, Karen E. Lehr of Monroeville, Ellen Churma of Pittsburgh, Mark W. Lehr (wife, Susan) of Irwin, and Barbara L. Noteboom of Overland Park, KS-- and to her grandchildren: Julie Lehr, Patrick Lehr, Amanda Lehr, Eric Lehr, Connor Noteboom, and Alix Noteboom. She is also survived by her sister Rosemary O'Connell, of Naples, Florida, and preceded in death by her husband Ronald F. Lehr and brother William McKibbin. Carolyn was a fixture in the talk radio world of Pittsburgh, often described as "The Monroeville Lady, or Carolyn from Monroeville." She had a passion for sports, politics, education and news from around the world, read two newspapers a day and was a whiz at crossword puzzles, including the New York Times on Sunday. She was a fantastic cook, and loved celebrating holidays, birthdays, and special occasions. She was generous to a fault, and will be missed dearly by all who loved her. May she find joy and peace eternally. Services and interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a memorial contribution in Carolyn's name to a charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

BN

“ Thank you for your kind words all. She now is at peace finally.Barb

Barbara Noteboom - June 13, 2013 at 12:47 PM

BM

“ My sincerest condolences. Aunt Carolyn was very generous and loving. I'm happy for her that the suffering is over. May the angels guide her home.

Brendan McKibbin - June 11, 2013 at 12:38 PM

MB

“ So sorry for your loss! She fought a tough battle and now is in a better place

Mark Bronowski - June 10, 2013 at 05:34 PM

DH

“ God speed Carolyn! You touched many lives, who will forever be eternally grateful, for the simple fact that they knew you.

Dana Hoyt-Bauer - June 10, 2013 at 12:27 PM

MA

“ What a beautiful tribute to your lovely mother. Thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Marilyn Adams - June 10, 2013 at 08:45 AM