

Charles D. Parham

August 22, 2024

Charles D. Parham, Age 61, of Homer City, passed away on Thursday, August 22, 2024. He was born in Tokyo, Japan to the late Mary and LaVaughn Parham. Charles is survived by his daughters Stephanie (William), Jennifer (Joseph), and Emma Jean; grandchildren Lavonte, Maddalyn, Maysen, Maisley, and Merrick; sisters Tonya Alcorn, and Leigh Fowler; nieces and nephews, Labron (Kitchens), Christopher (Alcorn), MJ (Maxwell), Amanda (Alcorn) Madison (Alcorn), Kyle (Nixon), Tiffany (Fowler), Justin (Fowler); great nieces and nephews Aubrey, Riley, Reagan, and Matthew. Charles was a simple person who lived life to the fullest, saw the best in everyone, and had a love for animals, including rescuing dogs and birds. He was a proud Southern Baptist who enjoyed helping people who needed anything from home repairs, food, or a place to camp out. Charles was a talented carpenter that still used a square pencil and never left home without a measuring tape on his hip. Services will be private. Arrangements entrusted to GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE. Condolences may be made at www.corlfuneralchapel.com

Tribute Wall

PB

“ Charles and I spent 13 wonderful years together at our home. He was a loving and caring man that I was proud to share life with. I miss him greatly and will never forget him.
Trish Boyle

---

Patricia Boyle - October 26, 2024 at 02:45 PM