

Charlotte J. (Hannon) Cangey

June 23, 1933 - June 22, 2020

Charlotte J. Cangey, 86, of Monroeville, died Monday, June 22, 2020. She was born on June 23, 1933, in New Castle and was the daughter of the late Catherine and Russell Hannon. She is survived by her brother, Russell Hannon of McCandless; sisters-in-law, Mary Ann Cangey of New Castle and Phyllis Stewart of Butler; brothers-in-law, Domenick Cangey of New Castle and Ralph Cangey of Austintown, Ohio; nephews, Sean (Lori) Hannon of Fombell and Michael Cangey of New Castle; nieces, Melanie (Chris) LaBarbera of Coppell, Texas, Julie (Alicia) Hannon of McCandless, Patty Young of Rancho Cucamonga, California; great-nieces, Kaitlyn and Kylie Craig and Amber Haydo; great-nephews, Travis (Jill) Curtaccio and Ryan (Kari) Shaffer; and many more nieces and nephews, including a brood of furry ones she adored and spoiled; and great-great-nieces and great-great-nephews and godchildren; cousin Elvie Hannon; and dear friends Debbie Antonucci and Ann Brown and families. She was preceded in death by her husband of 56 years, Sam Cangey; sisters-in-law, Connie Hannon, Antoinette Mastren, Mary (Frank) Chirumbolo, and Nancy Cangey; brothers-in-law, Frank and Joseph Cangey; nephew, Joey Cangey; and cousin, Hal Hannon. Charlotte was a 1952 graduate of New Castle High School. She loved her sales jobs, including at Glenn Thomas Pharmacy in New Castle, Macy's flagship store in New York City, and Kaufmann's Department Store. She was a member of St. Bernadette Catholic Church in Monroeville. Her favorite activity was playing the quarter slots while enjoying her Misty 120 Blues and rum and

Diet Cokes or long island iced teas; she loved all things Irish and the magnificent color green; she adored every dog she met and her and Sam's annual vacations to Lake Erie. She had a wonderful sense for fashion and took great pride in outfitting generations of her family in "sharp" school clothes, treating all to gas and beer money, no matter their age, and gifting her famous fudge at Christmas, macaroni dinners for the hungry college students, and "golden eggs" at Easter. She relished in giving and receiving presents. She rooted for the Pittsburgh Pirates no matter their record and wished they had never traded Andrew McCutchen or Gerrit Cole. She had the heart the size of Texas and loved her family and friends unconditionally, always seeing the best in them. She will be missed always. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at on Saturday, June 27th at 10 a.m. at St. Bartholomew Church in Penn Hills. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Humane Animal Rescue or Animal Friends. Arrangements entrusted to the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE. www.corlfuneralchapel.com
