

Dr. Cheng Dong Young

February 10, 2021

Dr. Cheng Dong Young, age 84, of Monroeville passed away on Wednesday, February 10, 2021. Beloved husband of Susan Pai Shan (Lei) Young; father of Dr. James Young (Daisy). Dr. Young was born in Shijia Zhuang, China on April 19, 1938. He fled to Taiwan in 1949 along with his parents where he finished high school and attended medical school. He graduated from the National Defense Medical School and served 10 years at the Taiwan Armed Forces General Hospital. Later Dr. Young was promoted to an attending Hematology physician in Taipei Veterans General Hospital. He was loved and trusted not only by his patients, but by his directors and colleagues, and was honored with the President Physician's award during this time. In 1975, Dr. Young decided to decline the Chief Physician position in the hematology department and decided to move his whole family to the United States. He started his 2-year internship in Yonkers Hospital in New York and achieved his medical license. In 1977, by the leading of God, Dr. Young was hired as a physician by Braddock Hospital. He was also on staff at Forbes Hospital and many nursing homes and had a private practice with Dr. Ou for 28 years. He also worked along with Dr. Ho, Dr. Tong and Dr. Ragoor. He was a dedicated physician who was trusted and loved by his patients. Dr. Young was involved in many community activities including the Chinese community where he once served as chairman of the OCA (the Organization of Chinese Americans), and Chinese associations overseas. In 2005, Dr. Young was forced to retire from his practice due to Parkinson's disease. For the first few years he still enjoyed swimming and singing with the Monroeville Senior Citizens Choir. He liked to use music to help and comfort others in need. By God's amazing grace, his doctors, his healthcare workers, family members and friends, Dr. Young was able to endure the effects of Parkinson's the last 16 years. By 2013, he became homebound and was able to spend precious time at home with family and friends. On February 10th, right before the Chinese New Year, Dr. Young went with our dear Lord peacefully, where there is no more tears, pain and suffering. He went before us until we meet again and made a wonderful testimony to our Lord. He accomplished his worldly duties as a dedicated and devoted physician, husband and father. He will be missed by all those who knew and loved him. Thanks to our heavenly Father that we have this abundant life. All glory and grace belong to God. Amen. The family would like to thank his doctors and healthcare workers for their wonderful care and to their many friends for their love and support. Friends will be received from 1-6 p.m. on Saturday, February 20th and from 1-6 p.m. on Sunday, February 21st at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (412-372-2100), and where a funeral service will be held on Sunday at 3 p.m. The wearing of facial masks and social distancing will be followed per CDC guidelines. A private entombment will be at Homewood Cemetery. To leave a condolence please visit www.corlfuneralchapel.com.

“ So sorry to hear of the death of your husband, Susan. I remember when we were on a bus trip with the art club, I became ill, and Dr. Young took care of me. Again, so sorry to hear of his death.
Sincerely, Margaret Soboslay.

“ Dear 白珊,

得知振東兄的仙逝，幾次提筆，但真的不知如何安慰妳是好？您們二位夫妻感情親密深厚，深深體會妳此刻沉慟的心情，我們多年不見，但，上次一同旅遊的點滴，常常出現在腦海裡，振東兄的幽默，敏捷的口才，加上為人的正直誠懇，同學之間的和藹可親，都是我們崇敬和不能忘懷的楷模，但望從一些美好的回憶裡，能夠安撫妳的悲傷於萬一，是盼！疫情期間，相信處理喪事，更增妳的無奈，路途遙遠，不能前往致祭，還望在振東兄的靈前，代致追思之意！
令公子James & Daisy 處亦請代為致意。

子勁、美林 敬筆
