“ Christopher was honestly one of the best friends that I had the privilege to know him. He was so generous, kind, loyal, and I always felt safe with him and a sense of security, he was one of the kindest and most genuine friends that I feel truly blessed to have had him in my life when I did, and although time passed since we had spent time together, he was like a brother to me, we had so much in common, and he was honestly one of the best people I've ever known! His big brown eyes and long eyelashes and his big smile would light up my day every time I would see him, I trusted him with my deepest secrets and my life. I'm so devastated that he was taken away waaayyy too soon and that we hadn't seen each other in a few years, but he was like family to me and we could have gone time apart due to growing up and life showing up, but then running into him was like we never missed a beat. I can honestly say that I have unconditional love for Christopher and I feel blessed that I did get to have a loyal friend and some awesome memories that I'll always and forever cherish. I'm devastated and still in shock, and I just pray that he is in peace and that his family will find peace, he was such a wonderful man that I have to believe that God wanted him and he's an angel. I can't understand any other reason to take back such a beautiful loving and selfless soul. I'll always love you Christopher and I miss you deeply.
