

Clyde R. McFall

September 20, 1949 - December 20, 2020

Clyde R. McFall, of Penn Hills, passed away on December 20, 2020. He was preceded in death by his wife of 38 years, Barbara B. McFall, and his parents, Lester and Edna (McGraw) McFall. He was the loving father of Amanda (Chad) Davis; brother of Lynne (Robert) Steffenino and uncle of Robert Steffenino, Christine (David) Greenwalt & Stephanie (William) Powell; fiancée Lou Ann Grala. Clyde was a war veteran, having served in the US Navy, was a retired clerk & expeditor for the United States Postal Service, avid golfer and car enthusiast. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.

Arrangements entrusted to the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC.

AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE. www.corlfuneralchapel.com

Tribute Wall

BB

“ Clyde was one of the kindest and joyful people I knew growing up. Even though we lost touch after high school, I remembered his laugh and sense of humor with a smile.

The world is a sadder place.

Beverly Braverman

Beverly Braverman - January 04, 2021 at 01:56 PM