

Daniel Hammond

March 4, 2011

Surrounded by his family, Daniel S. Hammond IV of Monroeville, PA., on Friday, March 4, 2011. Beloved husband of 58 years to Jeanne L. Hammond (Berube), father of Daniel S. Hammond V, Barbara A. Garrow (Hammond), Peter S., Susan M. Cardoza (Hammond) and Caroline J.. Well-loved by sons-in-law James Garrow and Fernando Cardoza, daughters-in-law Rhonda Hammond and Christine Hammond, eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Born June 21, 1920 in Paterson, NJ, Dan served in the Army Air Corps during WWII. Following a long and distinguished career as a civil highway engineer with the Federal Highway Transportation Department, Dan retired in 1980. The passion he developed for oil painting over five decades flourished in retirement. Dan's artistic affiliations included The Penn Hills Artists' Association and his award-winning works were featured in numerous art exhibits. Painting until his final days, Dan's last piece entitled Rainbow of Hope remains unfinished. An adventuresome spirit, Dan shared his fondness of sailing, camping and travel with his family. His generosity will be remembered many, including numerous charities. There will be NO visitation. Mass of Christian Burial on Tuesday 11 a.m. at North American Martyrs Church, Haymaker Road, Monroeville, with Father Joseph Luisi as celebrant. Interment private. In lieu of flowers, expressions of sympathy can be made in Dan's name to: Interim Hospice, 1789 South Braddock Ste 340, Pittsburgh, PA 15218-1835.
