“ Debbie was such a sweet kind person. We went to high school together. I was shocked when I heard of her passing. Our paths have crossed over the years, and she was a beautiful person inside and out. My sincere condolences to her family. 🙏

“ We were honored to know Debbie during her time in Colorado with our SOFG group. She was a beautiful person, sweet, warm, friendly and always had a beautiful smile that shined wherever she went. Most importantly her love for Jesus and strong faith was very evident. We will forever hold her in our hearts. Until we see each other again Deb, we love you ❤️!

“ Although my heart breaks at the passing of my dear friend, Debbie, she is now enjoying the eternal life that was given to her by God’s grace thru her unwavering faith. This remarkable gift was granted to her via the shed blood of Jesus Christ and his resurrection. Her acceptance of that precious gift means that we will see each other again. So although I grieve her loss here on earth, I have the reassurance of a great reunion one day when I will once again see her beautiful smile. Debbie was an amazing mother, Mimi and dear friend to so many. She unselfishly loved others and when I read the spiritual gifts listed in Romans 12... serving, encouraging, giving and mercy describe who Debbie was. Having shared a home together, I saw her let the Holy Spirit lead her over and over again in these areas of her life. May the seeds that she sowed grow deep roots and produce much more fruit in the years to come. I will miss you, Debbie, but this is just a “see you later”...until we meet again.

“ Oh my I am in such shock.... i was looking for another obit and ran across Debbie's. Just buried a mutual friend this past week and am at a loss for words. I can not believe that she passed away. There is another angel watching over us now. I am so sorry

“ Although it's been years since I've seen Debbie, I will always remember her sweet smile and her deep love for family, friends, and Jesus. Memories of the "Gresh" kids at God Squad at First Baptist Monroeville are among the best of my life. My deepest condolences to Debbie's family

“ Linsey....my heartfelt condolences to you and your family over the passing of your mom. Though it has been a number of years since we last spoke, know that I keep you and others in my prayers daily. Stay strong during this difficult time and turn to God for strength.
Sincerely,
Wayne

“ Debbie was one of the strongest, faithful people I've ever known. From 45 years ago in God Squad youth group to adulthood, I had the the privilege of knowing her. We shared concerns about each others children who were struggling with issues and she always was the voice of reason and faith in God when we wondered what to do next to help our kids. I will miss our conversations, and will miss her uplifting spirit in the face of her many trials . She always made time for others over herself. I am glad she is at rest and can see her Savior face to face. My prayers to her family for peace and comfort.

“ I've know Debbie for 30 yrs. I started working as a temp. with her and thought she was the kindest, prettiest, fashionable person I ever met & her faith so strong! Through the years Debbie weathered many storms but always kept strong in her faith and always stayed positive. She had her beliefs and faith in God. I will miss my friend so much and our talks but know she is at rest with her lord, and son.

“ Debbie will surely be missed by so many who knew & loved her. She has had many trials in her life but never took her eyes off of Jesus. Although sorry to lose her here, I am so glad to know that her pain is gone and she is in eternity now with Jesus.

“ I didn't know Debbie for an extremely long time,yet we had a special connection from the start...our love for Jesus! Debbie was a very strong woman with a beautifully gentle spirit. No matter what challenges she may have faced,she always seemed to have a really amazing attitude. Debbie will be missed by all who know her! She's a special woman, who loves the Lord! Knowing she's with Jesus,and without pain and sadness brings comfort, yet her not being here brings tears. With love and a grateful heart to have known Debbie and call her a Dear Friend...Joy

“ I am so sorry for your family's loss. Debbie was one of the sweetest, kindest, most caring people that I have ever known. She always had an encouraging word for others and she rose to overcome every challenge that she was given in her life. I am heartbroken that she is gone. Her faith In the Lord was very strong and it gives me some comfort knowing that she is in heaven with Him.

“ Debbie was the kind of friend that everyone seeks and few find. Always encouraging, always faithful. I am comforted knowing she is with her Savior, but this side of heaven is darker in her absence. I will keep her memory close the rest of my days and strive to be the kind of friend to others that she was to me. Comfort to her family.
