“ I have many memories of Delores from when she first started to date Jim. But the memory I keep thinking about is how we talked about books. She loved to read and so do I. We could go on and on about favorite books we liked and didn't like and would exchange them back and forth.

Also, the devotion that Jim, her son, had for her was a wonderful thing to observe.

Rest in peace.

“ Aunt Delores was like a second mother to me. A loving, caring and kind human being that was always available to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. My memories are endless of the family get togethers, vacations and special lunches and shopping trips. She was a dedicated RN and caregiver for many decades comforting those who required special care. My heart is broken but I know for certain that she is in heaven surrounded by her family. Rest In Peace Aunt Delores. Love you forever. Debbie Dougherty Woodruff
