

Dennis Molnar

June 2, 2008

On June 2, 2008, in UPMC Presbyterian, Oakland, after battling a stroke for three days. Dennis was a Holocaust survivor who showed brilliant strength and determination in escaping persecution and beginning a new life in a prosperous country. After leaving Hungary in 1956, not knowing any English, he began building a life that included having a family and doing productive work with Westinghouse as an engineer. In retirement he enjoyed cooking, tending to his rental properties, and spending quality time with his wife, Gabriella, and daughter, Elizabeth. Also survived by a sister, Ibolya Perl. Friends received from noon to 1 p.m. Thursday at GENE H. CORL INC. FUNERAL & CREMATION CENTER OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike, followed by procession to Plum Creek Cemetery for interment.
