“ I worked in the Kiski School library with Diana. I had been an elementary school teacher at that time. Diana encouraged me to go back to school to take courses in library science. I eventually did that and have gone on to be a librarian in schools in Florida and Massachusetts. Her support and encouragement are a huge reason why I am a librarian today. She was a wonderful person, and I learned so much from her. I'm grateful to have known her. I send my condolences to her family. -Amy Perry

“ Jack and I send our deepest sympathy on the loss of Diana. My big memory of her was when our two families lived closely on the farm. Our mothers were both teaching school at that time and they would leave us at our grandmother and grandfather's house for the day. Of course we were young and would get into trouble. I used to remind Doris of that all the time of the things we would do, mud pies, getting into Grandma's spice cake, gather eggs and many more. These were happy days for all of us to grow up together. We shall all miss her and pray that God gives you support during your time of grief.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Diana’s family. She was my best friend in Florida. I loved our walks with our dogs around the lake or block. I miss her.
