

Donald Andrew Fidler

November 30, 1957 - May 13, 2020

Donald Andrew Fidler, 62, of Murrysville, Pennsylvania, passed away on Wednesday, May 13, 2020 at his home. Donald was born November 30, 1957, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to Donald and Clara (Ferko) Fidler. He graduated from Norwin High School in 1976 and attended Penn State University. Donald started in the workforce with UPS, before finding his passion as a salesman with Yellow Freight. He fulfilled a lifelong dream of running his own business, starting Tripak Industries in 2004 and building it into a successful company. Aside from work, Don found peace in nature and had a great love for the outdoors. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, boating, biking, camping and quad riding. He took great pride in his ability to identify different species of plants and animals, capturing attention with his bird and gator calls. Donald had an incredible zest for life and a purely charismatic personality. He seemingly always took center stage, finding the good in the people around him drawing them in with his confidence, and bringing out their adventurous side. Above all, Donald loved his family, with whom he shared his generosity and big heart. All that remember him will miss his laughter, joy and timely advice. Along with An Son Luke, his beloved wife, always his rock and his anchor, Donald brought his Christianity to the forefront of his life. He is survived by his parents, Donald and Clara Fidler; his beloved wife, An Son Luke; his dog Mango; his children Carissa Fox, Justin Fidler and Cassandra Shamash (Dan); grandchildren Adalie and Brandt Geiger and Liana Shamash; and brothers Robert, Daniel and Jay Fidler. Friends will be received Wednesday,
