“ Mom I know your at piece now and i didn't get to say good bye, but if I did I would thank you for being in my life, for the memories we created and the experiences we had. Thank you for creating such a wonderful and loving daughter, thanks for letting me into your family and allowing me to have her as my bride, thanks for being there on my wedding day and when my kids were born, thank you for the memories of you and them playing together and thank you for loving me. I told the boys you are with God now and they can call and talk to you anytime, it may take awhile to get an answer but you would listen to every word. Rest in piece mom I love you. Kerry, Cindi, Kyle and Caleb. ”

“ Kimi, Cindi and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I know that there is nothing to compare to the loss of a loved one. Just remember that she is in a place where there is no pain but only restful comfort. Take joy in the memories of your times together. You were indeed blessed to have such a loving parent.
