“ *Vivian and Naomi,
My Heartfelt Sympathy on the passing of Dorothy. She was a good friend. Always willing to lend a hand and always brought brown bags for her friends at bingo. I thought of her often.
She is now resting with Guy.

“ *Deepest Sympathy on the passing of Dorothy. I knew Dorothy from the Tuesday Good Shepherd Bingo. She was a tremendous help at the bingo. Her pound cake was the best. Dorothy greeted everyone with a hug and a kiss and was always willing to share Guy's garden vegetables. Dorothy got around great, after her stroke and was able to continue with bingo. You will be missed. Love ya Dorothy “ Mrs. Bartolomeo was like a second grandmother to me. Her kindness, intelligence, grit, and sharp wit were truly remarkable. I will deeply miss her passion, enthusiasm, and honesty. My love and condolences go out to her and family; I regret not being able to visit again. May you find peace, knowing you touched the lives of so many. You are in God's caring hands now, surrounded by love.
