“ My favorite thing about hanging out with Aunt Dorothy is how much she loved to laugh. I loved to tell her funny stories because she enjoyed them so much!

When we were kids, we were cleaning up in the kitchen at Santa Sophia and Aunt Dorothy came in with a load of stuff, and her eyes got so big, and she warned Janet who was, rinsing the dishes that MaryLynne who was washing them might not really be getting them clean! Jan said, "no problem, what doesn't come out in the wash, comes out in the rinse."

A.Dorothy laughed and laughed and retold it to everyone, and soon everyone was laughing and joking, and I thought how glad I was to be there in the middle of my relatives, instead of hiding from the work like my brothers were probably doing.

“ My wonderful sister in law who always had a spectacular kindness in her heart for everyone. A great wife and mother to her four children. A very Godly woman. I will miss those long phone conversations we had.
