“ Dear Kelly and family. Your parents were one of the kindest people I ever met. I enjoyed talking with them. They always made me feel welcome and like I was family. I am thankful to have known them for most of my life and have many fond memories of times we spent together.

Your dad was a truly wonderful person. It is never easy to lose a parent, no matter what age you are or they are. I know you will miss him dearly. I am sure you will think of him every time you make oven toast!

I hope you all find comfort in the support of memories of happy times together. Your family pictures speak volumes of your parent's legacy and the love you all have for each other. What a wonderful blessing. Know I am keeping you in my thoughts and prayers and sending my love to you all.

“ I didn't know Mr. Stair well. He was my sweet friend's father. Like most men of his generation, he stood back and let his outgoing and caring wife interact with one of their daughters' many friends. I didn't know Mr. Stair well, but he was the rock, the foundation on which a now large family rested. Without his steady hand, warm comfort and wise advice those who loved him the most would not be the women they are: quick to smile, kind, thoughtful, generous...His wife and daughters knew how much they were loved by him. They felt secure enough to become the strong and beautiful individuals that they are. If we are all made in God's image, and I believe that we are; then Mr. Stair was the trusted foundation that one could build a life upon. What a powerful legacy that is!
