

Edith Mae Sims

December 21, 2021

Edith Mae Sims, 80 of New Kensington, PA died peacefully on Wednesday, December 22, 2021, at Good Samaritan Hospice Cabot. Born June 2, 1941, in Newport, Rhode Island she was the daughter of the late James Griffin Jr and Lillian Hennesey. Mrs. Sims met and married her beloved husband, Isaac, in April of 1967 in New York City. The two of them moved to Wilkinsburg and ran Sims Photography Studio for many years. They made the decision to close the studio and retire to Beckley, WV where they spent many years with family and friends. They joined and are still current members of the Beckley Seventh Day Adventist Church. In 2017 their children encouraged them to move back to New Kensington. They lived in New Kensington till 2019 when they moved into Concordia of Monroeville Personal Care facility. Mrs. Sims is survived by many siblings, 2 stepsons, Reginald Sims of New Kensington and Michael (Trish Long) of Penn Hills, many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews, adopted daughter Cheryl Miller and adopted granddaughter Ella (Miller) Kisiel whom took care of her until she passed. She was preceded in death by her parents, loving husband Isaac Reginald Sims, siblings and stepdaughter, Suzanne Sims of Wilkinsburg. Arrangements entrusted to the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC.