

Edward V. "Vic" Coletta

January 11, 2020

Edward V. "Vic" Coletta, passed away on Saturday, January 11, 2020, at the age of 78. Vic is survived by his wife, Nicoletta Coletta; his children, Marianne Pisano (Justin), Alicia Coletta and Rico Coletta (Lauren); and three granddaughters, Eden, Vita, and Carmen; his nephew Dan Mitolo (Michele); his great niece, Shyanne, and his beloved cat Phoenix. Vic was born in Swissvale on July 4, 1941 to Ed and Betty Coletta. He served as a Sergeant in the 543rd Military Police Company out of Fort Knox, Kentucky. Vic was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and uncle. He enjoyed playing billiards and was a master craftsman in carpentry and leatherwork. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who knew him. Everyone will miss his stories of life's adventures. Friends will be received Thursday from 7-9 p.m. and Friday from 1-4 p.m. with a Blessing Service to follow at 4 p.m. at the GENE H. CORL INC. FUNERAL CHAPEL AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (412-372-2100). Interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, as an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions may be sent to the Corl Funeral Chapel. www.corlfuneralchapel.com

“ Sending sympathies to a wonderful family who was so strong and gave us a wonderful, but short, time to enjoy this great guy during his struggles. May you be at peace knowing Vic is not suffering.

“ I remember Vic well as a child at Family Reunions. He is my Late Father, John's, Cousin. He was always so much fun and smiling. Last time I saw him was at my Parents 50th Anniversary Party. Rest In Peace and say hello to my Dad in Heaven.

“ I first had the pleasure of meeting Vic thru my brother David. We enjoyed playing pool together and socializing on many occasions back in the day. All we did was laugh! That’s what I’ll remember most about Vic, the way he laughed and the way he made me and everyone around him laugh. May God bless you, Vic , and your soul rest In peace! Until we meet and laugh together again—— Johnny
