“ Love and prayers to Betsy and the family, my kids always loved trick or treating at the House, to see the robot witch come out with the candy and see Mr. Hestin come out smiling. Love, John, Leslie, Brielle, Baylee Blanton.

“ The world certainly lost a very good man with the passing of Ed. I have many great memories with Ed as a neighbor for 20 years. I especially appreciated his assistance at the time my wife Rita passed away. This I have never forgotten. His presence was always projecting one of strength, stability and warmth of a human relationship and feelings for others.

In life there are always coincidental events. However, for me this one is very special in that for some reason my daughter Roberta asked me if I had heard anything about Mr. Hestin lately and I said no, but we did continued to talk about Ed extensively reminiscing the past. Two hours later I got a call here in St. Louis from Russ Thompson, another Monroeville neighbor, telling me about Ed's passing. I know our family will certainly always have a special remembrance for Ed.

We did lose this very good man, a husband and father but with prayers Ed will rest in a peace that was earned and well deserved.

Love and prayers to the Hestin family. I lived down a few houses from the Hestins and would play with Dan and Chris in the late 70s and 80s. Mr. Hestin was always friendly toward the kids on the street and never had an issue with all of us visiting his house and playing on the street right above. I wasn't aware that he was a veteran but thank you very much for your service.

It fitting that we are celebrating D day and the generation of men whose mantra was quiet sacrifice . Ed was a true gentleman and my life was better for knowing him .
