“ I share a lot of memories with Aunt Evie. We had bad times but also great times together. She was always spunky and that is how I will always remeber her. Rest in Peace° 🥺

“ Lots of love from this lady ever since I met her son Michael when I was a freshman at Pitt. I learned to make the best deviled eggs from her, and she loved our boys with all her heart. One of my favorite memories is when she rode the tilt-a-whirl with them and was nicknamed Screamin' Mimi for the rest of the day. She LOVED her Pomeranians, once we illegally babysat a fuzzball of hers in college and hid him in our dresser. Godspeed Mimi, love you.

“ it was a joy knowing Evelyn , known as Mimi to our shared grandchildren. My favorite memories of Evelyn were at the Monroeville house when Hayden was first born. We shared lots of laughs at that house. We shared a love of Idewild Park and that silly caterpillar ride. She was a wonderful mother and a super grandmother.
