“ I happened to read of Don's passing in a church bulletin where I was visiting. Don was my boss for 17 years at Westinghouse Credit Corp. from the day he hired me in 1976. He was kind, gentle, slow to anger - always a gentleman. My deepest sympathy to the family. I know he is greatly missed.

“ All of you have my heart felt deepest sympathy and prayers for the lost of your father. I remember Mr. Wenstrup not only from the first neighborhood but Downtown where we passed in business. He knew my father being police. I believe we rode the Parkway Limited a train from Pitcairn to Downtown Pittsburgh when PennDot shut down the Parkway East to refurbish it in the late 79-80. {way to many yrs ago}. He was a wonderful gentleman, very intelligent, and kind. I also Graduated with Karen, & Michael. I understand the loss. I also remember your parents checking on us, as we would swing from the weeping willow vines over the creek on Woodhaven. May he rest in peace.

“ Don was a calm and loving man. He loved his family. He and Ann raised four wonderful children that I was fortunate to babysit quite often. So sorry for your loss. Lynda Lightfoot-Bridge

“ Bob and I fondly remember Don. He was always so kind to Bob when teaching him the rules of the altar. I loved teasing him and it was such a joy to see him laugh. It is a great loss for all. Bob and Mary Harrill

“ We remember Don and his family as nearby neighbors and his daughters were excellent babysitters for us. In recent years, he was very active in multiple ministries at North American Martyrs. It was always a pleasure to converse with him back in the sacristy. Our sincere condolences,
