“ So sad to learn about the passing to glory of Gordon. It was such a joy worshipping with him at our church, Verona Presbyterian Church. He volunteered and accompanied me several times to the Presbytery as I went through the preparation for ministry process. I will always appreciate his company and encouragement during those days. I was so moved to see him at my ordination; he pushed himself to attend despite his challenging health situation. Just so revealing of his generous and loving heart. We will greatly miss him. Thank you for the love, service, and joy you shared with all of us. Rest in peace Gordon in His eternal glory.
