“ Just by chance found this page while sitting at the kitchen table in Norway. I have many fond memories of Mr Kenyon, and I know that hundreds of students from Trafford High School do. I was able to visit him once in Pitcairn when in college and when married; he liked both my wife, Inger, and daughter, Inghild. Then visited him retired in Monroeville where we talked about Trafford, church choirs, and literature. Enjoyed his short stories and our chats about teaching. Very nice he and Louise found one another in retirement.
