“ *Eunice,
Bob and I were very sorry and shocked at the passing of Gil. Sorry we aren't there in person to extend our sympathies since we are in Italy.
We will always have fond memories of Gil serving the Lord and Good Shepherd so faithfully. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Rest In Peace Gil.*

“ *It will be a difficult walk down the aisle without my usher partner. We shared so many moments at Good Shepherd. What a faithful servant of God and GSLC. We are so blessed to have had him among us. Eunice, may you continue to feel the love from your Good Shepherd family. We will stand with you during the difficult days ahead. “ Hi Eunice: I was looking at another obituary from Corl Funeral Home and saw Gilbert's name. It's been a very long time since we have been in touch but we always thought fondly of you and Gil. We're so sorry for your great loss and wanted you to know you will be in our thoughts and prayers. Jim and Marlene Moore

“ Gil and Eunice have been our church buddies for years. I always looked to make sure they were in their pew, and share a handshake or hug. Rest In Peace, dear Gil. We will miss you and the smiles you had for us. You have been so faithful to Good Shepherd, and the congregation will feel the loss.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family of this amazing sweet man... You now have your foot prints in Concrete, no one will ever be able to replace those footprints.. May you rest in the arms of the Lord. Love you. Will miss your smiling face .... 🙏
