

Gim Eng

November 25, 2012

Age 89, of Monroeville, died peacefully on Sunday, November 25, 2012. Mr. Eng is survived by Linda (Khuu) Eng, his devoted wife of 31 years, his son, Ronald (Donna), two grandchildren, Christopher and Michael, two brothers King (Mary) and Sau (Marguerite), his stepmother, Yuk, numerous nephews and nieces, many in-laws and friends. He was born in Taishan, China on March 2, 1923 and immigrated to the United States as a teenager to join his father, Gee Hem, in NYC following the death of his mother, Suey Yee Tam. After high school, he served in the U.S. Army Air Force during WWII in the Pacific Theatre, then attended the University of Michigan (BS), Columbia University (MS), and completed course work for a PhD at the University of Pittsburgh. He spent his 33 year career at Westinghouse Electric where he worked as a nuclear engineer. As a father, he shared his son's passion for scouting, serving in numerous adult leadership roles. The two enjoyed many family vacations together including yearly trips to visit friends and relatives in Chinatown, NYC. Mr. Eng was active in the community serving on many boards, notably the Pittsburgh Chinese Church, Pittsburgh East Chinese Church, Organization of Chinese Americans, On Leong Association, Chinese Benevolent Association, Pittsburgh Folk Festival and the Chinese American Republican Association. He and his wife, Linda, travelled extensively, enjoying many cruises and trips overseas, often accompanied by family and friends. Linda's large family figured prominently in his life, as they enjoyed many celebrations together sometimes playing mahjong or singing karaoke late into the night. A private, quiet man of determination and strength, he generously gave of himself to his family, community and adopted country. He will be greatly missed. Friends may visit family at the GENE H. CORL INC. FUNERAL CHAPEL & CREMATION CENTER OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (1 block East of Mossie Blvd.-Rte. 48) on Friday, November 30, from 5 -9 pm. “ Dear Linda, It is sad to hear Brother Gim Eng had gone to be with the Lord; but this is also a time to give thanks to our heavenly Father, for the hope of eternal life through His precious son Jesus. Sorry I won't be able to attend the service due to out of town trip; you and your family will be in my thought and my prayer.

“ Dear Sister Linda: Please accept our deepest sympathies on the loss of your Godly husband. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. 1 Corinthians 15:55-57 “O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?” The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
