“ When someone you love becomes a memory, your memories become treasures. We pray that the memories you have of Greg bring you peace and comfort. Let God embrace you with His Love. We have been with you, in Spirit, these past days and continued prayers through our lifetime for you, and all his loved ones.

He was so proud of his three girls. When we last saw him in July, we told him he had better make a trip down so Uncle Frank could take him snook fishing. He's with the greatest fisherman of all and probably has a boatload. We love you and will miss you.
