“ Hey Hilary,

I wanted to connect with you again. I was thinking about you often. My old computer game buddy. Playing DOOM until our eyes watered. I couldn't afford those games or computers back then. I have a ton of old memories of the fun we had. I'm really sorry you got to go before I could shake your hand one last time.

“ Aunt Diane, I was so happy for you when Hilary came into your life. It was obvious to anyone who was around you just how much you loved each other and how happy you made each other. Hilary always seemed to be in a good mood and had such a positive attitude. He will be greatly missed. Aunt Diane, I hope you will lean on your faith in God and your family and friends until the time comes for you to be reunited with Hilary in heaven. All my love, Genevieve

My deepest sympathy goes out to all family and friends that were fortunate to have known the kindest, patient, gentle soul as Hill.
