

Jack H. Brown

October 22, 2024

Jack H. Brown, of Monroeville, passed away peacefully on October 22, 2024. Born on October 20, 1943 at Armstrong County Memorial Hospital, Jack devoted his life to his family, education and his church.

He received his Bachelor's Degree from Clarion University in 1964, with post-graduate studies at Penn State University, West Virginia University, and the University of Pittsburgh. He began his career at S.W. Central School District in Jamestown, NY and retired from Woodland Hills School District in 1995, after having taught at Edgewood High School, Turtle Creek High School, and Churchill High School.

Jack was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather who enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. He has left a lasting impression on all those who were privileged to know him. Recreationally, he enjoyed gardening, woodworking and fishing.

He was preceded in death by his father, John H. Brown, and his mother, Zelma E. (Cousins) Brown. Jack is survived by his devoted wife of 58 years, W. Joan (Rumble); son, James H. Brown; daughter, Lorie A. Brown; 3 granddaughters, Amber L. Weekley, Nicole E. Price (Brandon), Madison L. Brown; and great-grandson Bryson R. Price.

The light of Christ that shown through him will be forever etched upon the hearts of those that knew him.

Funeral arrangements are private. A memorial service and celebration of life will be held on Saturday, November 30, 2024 at 11 AM at Holiday Park United Methodist Church, with reception to follow. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Holiday Park United Methodist Church. Arrangements entrusted to GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE.
