“ To my childhood friends; your mom was the best. My fondest memories of her are when she would take her week vacation and take not only her kids to the local parks but all of us kids from the street with her. I will miss seeing her on my visits home to Pittsburgh. I am sure that she is very comfortable now. I am sorry that I will not be home for another week to be at the services to help you remember the good times like you did for me last year. My heart and prayers are with you all. - Mary

“ To my dear friend Grace and the Ferguson family; your sister, mom, grandma was one classy woman. I am so thankful that her last visit here at Vitas to volunteer was spent in my office helping me. We had the BEST conversation. She talked about missing her husband, how it wouldn't be Christmas until she makes her famous candy, how she loves her children and is so happy they are all doing so well. Jackie jokingly said of Grace that cooking wasn't her thing- if it took more than three steps to make she wasn't making it. We laughed and laughed. We made such a connection that day that I feel a loss too. I am praying for you all as you begin the grieving. But for Jackie she needs no prayers; she is with her husband and is going to enjoy the best Christmas ever with the MAN himself. Blessings, Anita
