“ My father and mother, chuck and ronnie Davis, participated in lawn bowling with mr. And mrs. Cunningham. I heard so many stories of their times together. My parents always spoke so highly of "Jim & Ruth."
I pray you father is at peace and enjoying the reunion with his wife and friends

“ Uncle Jim used to take 8mm movies of his nieces. He would help us do magic shows and we would disappear by turning on and off the camera, always with suprized look! What fun!

Debbie, Jim's niece - December 28, 2018 at 02:16 PM

“ It was October 2010. I was visiting my mother and father in Cranberry. This was going to be an extra special evening at their house as Jim; my godfather was coming to dinner. I had lived in England for the last 10 years and this reunion was important to my dad for me to see Jim again after so many years. When he arrived at the door I remember his big smile and warm hug and how my dad and Jim shared a hug/handshake that only 2 best friends could share.

Over the years my dad and mom spoke of Jim and the many, many memories from college at Carnegie Tech, their weddings, the Air force, England, the kids and family. So seeing Jim was a culmination of all these stories, affections, and deep friendship between these 2 men.

Jim reminisced at dinner about my own dad as they were together as Co-Pilot and Bombardier in the 390th Bombardment Group and what I saw and heard was Jim putting himself aside for those hours to make sure I knew everything about my dad just as my dad always did for Jim. They spoke about each other with such dignity, such friendship.

So in the years to come especially since my dad passed away Jim made absolutely sure that I had every story and every photo of his “best friend” as he always prefaced every letter, in my possession. He documented all of it for me for which I cherish. I will always remember Jim as a selfless, kind, smiling and courageous man. And. I will miss him.

"All is well, all will be well."

Sincerest condolences.
