“ I am so sorry for your loss. I had the privilege of known James Kirk. I have some great memories of us at the NCAA tournament. My through and prayers are with the entire Kirk family. I will light a candle at church this weekend asking God to comfort you in this difficult time.

“ Dear Patte and Family,

We are so, so sorry and are holding you as close as we possibly can in our daily thoughts and prayers. As you grieve, may you be comforted by your exceptionally strong faith, by your family and friends, and by remembering all of the many wonderful and special times and years you and Jim had together. A fine man, a loving husband and son, a great father and grandfather, a skilled attorney and teacher, and a dear, dear friend, he will forever live on in our hearts as well as eternally with his Lord and Savior. We feel certain that his parents and brother, Tom, were there to greet him in heaven, and that he and Lonnie are also busy catching up with one another again. We love you, Patte, and so wish we could be there to offer you our support at such a difficult time.

With our very deepest sympathy and in Christian love and friendship,

Marilyn and Howard 💖🙏
