“ We offer our deepest sympathy on the loss of your dear mother. I have fond memories of both your parents and remember them to be totally devoted to all of you their precious children. So many memories of days gone by——smoking in the chicken coop, Central dances, your Dad's music and of course your Mother's love for her kids. I know she is now happily resting in the arms of our dear Savior. With fond memories and deepest sympathy——Janice McGartland McKee and All the McGartlands
