

Jeffrey L. Covol

October 31, 2019

Jeffrey Lynn Covol, of Plum Borough, passed away peacefully on October 31st, 2019 at the young age of 60, following a courageous battle with cancer. He was surrounded by many loved ones. Jeff was born on January 21, 1959, and was raised in Monroeville, the son of the late Robert and Jacqueline (Riddle) Covol. He is survived by his son Ryan, Ryan's mother Amy, granddaughter Reyna, his soulmate Holley Ashbaugh, and treasured dog "OG". Jeff is further survived by many aunts & uncles, and his brother Bob (Lisa) Covol of Sandusky, OH, and sister Terri (Gary) Astorino of Edinboro, PA. In addition, nieces and nephews who adored their uncle, Drew (Jordyn) Astorino, Lauren (Evan) Mazary, Matthew Astorino, Rachel, Danny, & Luke Covol. Jeff found such joy and peace as a lifelong fisherman. He was fondly referred to as "The Captain" by many for his great passion & skill as an avid angler. His heaven on earth was on the shores of Lake Erie doing what he loved most. We know with each sunrise over the lake, Jeff's spirit will be felt fishing on those waters. Jeff was a hard worker spending his entire career in the food sales industry, the last several years with Triangle Sales & Marketing as an Account Manager. Jeff enjoyed spending time with family, golfing, and vacationing at Hilton Head. For those lucky enough to have known Jeff, his quirky sense of humor and wit will be greatly missed. No funeral services will be held. Jeff's wishes were to spend eternity at the place he loved, so his ashes will be spread over Lake Erie at a later date. Donations in Jeff's memory can be made to the National Coalition for Homeless Veterans www.n
