“ Aunt Jo, you were a part of my life as well. I was shocked to hear that you passed away. You always made me feel welcome when I was with you even though I was not blood related you made me feel like family. I will always be grateful for that. Rest easy, I am not going to say goodbye I will say until we meet again.

“ Joann was a great friend to my family. So easy to talk to. Have known her for over 33 years. She is the only one who stayed in touch with me after my dads passing and i am so thankful for that. Was sad when i heard if her passing. An amazing woman. Fly high with the angels Joann.

“ Nana I don't even know where to start. I have so many amazing memories with you. My favorite was our sleepovers while watching Good Times and my weekly visits to see you. I don't want to believe this is real. I already miss our daily FaceTime calls and our I love you's. This hurts more than you'll ever know. Thank you for being someone I could trust and count on. Thank you for being someone I could talk to about anything. Thank you for your continuous support regardless of what I was doing. I can only hope to be half of the woman, mom, Nana, and friend that you were. I don't know how I'm going to do this without you, but know I love you so so much. I'm grateful for the times we've had.

“ My Nana was one of the best people I’ve ever known. She had a heart of gold and loved her family and friends deeply. I never left her house without a full belly, laughs, and enough food for at least a week. I have countless amazing memories that I will cherish forever. Someday we will have mimosas together again and share many stories. Every time I light a Limoncello candle, hear Elvis playing, or make your recipes (especially veggie soup) I will be reminded of you. You’ve been such a big part of my life and helped shape me into who I am today, and although you’re no longer with us earth side, you will never be forgotten. I wish you would be here to meet my daughter more than anything, but I know you’ll be looking after her from Heaven. I hope you are dancing, laughing, and enjoying the other side. I love you, Nana.

Love, Crystal

“ So Lil sent me this link and I wasn't sure what to say. So now I do. 10 years ago Marc and I walked into the VFW and here you and John sat. Never saw you before I said hello and then are friendship began from there. Marc bought Pitt T shirts for John Jr. you gave me directions on how to make ham and bean soup. I would save ham and you make Marc ham salad which he loved. You would make us and my daughter pazzelles which so appreciated as well as she did. I know you tried to FaceTime me and I wish that we could have. Joann I am going to miss you my friend. Love you forever my friend and rest in peace ❤️🙏

*I have lost my best friend and my cousin, and think of you daily. You will be missed. We grew up together and stayed in touch almost daily. You are home now in the arms of all the people you have lost. I will see you again one day. I will always love and miss you

I've known the Jennings as far back as I can remember, they have been like family to the Stayduhars. Joann was good to everyone, she was especially good to my parents as they became older, always sending hot meals over to my Dad, putting the newspaper and mail in the house. Exchanging goodies over the fence with Carrie, sending down hot peppers or Italian greens for me. Joann was one of those Wickliff St fixures that we thought would always be around. It's not fair what some people have to go through before they cross over, and the last few years have certainly been physically tough on Joann, although she rarely complained. I can remember the Charlie Brown bath and toy set Joann got me for my 5th or 6th birthday! My deepest condolences to you all, Rest in peace Joann, you will be missed. Charlie S
