

John Hughes

April 14, 2013

John J. Hughes

Age 76, of Monroeville, died on Sunday, April 14, 2013. Born in Cumberland, MD., he graduated from schools in the state. He was a “man of many hats”, some of which included Hughes Security, Insurance Agent, Personal Aide, and work for the U.S. government. Mr. Hughes did a great deal of public service. He was involved with the American Police Agency, and was awarded both the J. Edgar Hoover FBI Memorial Gold Medal, as well as an honor badge from Who’s Who with Law Enforcement. He was also an active volunteer in his local community, landscaping for nursing homes, and providing Pastoral Care at hospitals. Mr. Hughes was most passionate about caring for people, which was shown through his avid Christian faith. His service to various church congregations extended from serving on boards, to local missions work. He lived out his days as an ambassador for Christ, and truly “went forth” to “make disciples” of the Lord. In the words of Mr. Hughes: “For God, for family, for country !” He was the beloved husband of Janice W. Hughes; and father of John (Sara) Hughes, Robert Hughes and Noel (Ben) Kress. Friends received at the GENE H. CORL INC. FUNERAL CHAPEL & CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (one block east of Mossie Blvd. –Rte. 48). Visitation Wednesday 5- 9 p.m. Funeral service at Monroeville United Methodist Church, 219 Center Rd. on Thursday 10:30 a.m., with Rev. Tom Barnicott, officiating. EVERYONE
