

John Huston

February 14, 2010

Age 81, of Monroeville, died peacefully of natural causes on February 14, 2010. He was born on February 20, 1928 in Allentown, PA. He is survived by Jean Herbert Huston, his beloved wife of 57 years; his children, Barbara Carrier and her husband Vaughn of Mayport, PA., Linda Huston and Lawrence Fiesler of Lake City, PA., Thomas Huston and his wife Beverly of Cranberry Township, PA., Sarah Oliver and her husband Bob of Erie, PA., and Peter Huston and his wife Amy of Bethel Park, PA.; and his grandson Connor John Huston. He was preceded in death by his parents, Alberta and Cecil B. Huston and brothers Albert and Kay. He is survived by many nieces and nephews. John was an United States Marine, and his favorite hat has the slogan: "Once a Marine, always a Marine" printed on it. Following his service to his country, he went to Syracuse University where he earned a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He worked for Westinghouse Nuclear Energy Systems for many years, and then for Bechtel Engineering retiring in 1989. He was a passionate fisherman, and he tied his own flies. He spent time nearly every summer of his life fishing at his grandfather's camp in Maine. He was a humble and honorable man, who, he said, slept well every night because he always went to bed with a clear conscience. His was a life well-lived. Friends received at the GENE H. CORL INC. FUNERAL CHAPEL & CREMATION CENTER OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (1 block East of Mossie Blvd.-Rte. 48) (A Golden Rule Member). Memorial visitation Thursday , February 18th, from 2 until 3:30 p.m., followed by a service. The family requests that friends and family make donations to PA Council of Trout Unlimited, PO Box 5148, Pleasant Gap, PA. 16823 or John Kanzius Cancer Research Foundation, 1001 State Street, Erie, PA. 16501, in lieu of flowers.
