“ Pam, John, Tim and siblings, my deepest condolences to you and your family with the loss of your father. I'm glad you have your family with whom to share this time of grief and memories. Growing up your Dad would always joke with us. Happy Days Are Here Again was the line in that song I remember him singing to us as we got ready to go back to school. He got Pam and I a job dressed as clowns. We stood along 22 in Muraysville in front of a Gulf station on a Saturday to hand out helium balloons to children. He was a good man. May your dad rest in peace along side your mom as your memories of them bring your family closer together.

“ Cousin John and I spoke often on the phone. More so as we aged and our family members passed away; increasing our realization that family is the most important thing in life. Oh, how very fortunate and lucky I was to be invited to join his last annual get together at the Outer Banks. We spent two whole days sitting on the deck and telling tales of Braddock and Swissvale. (Some of them were even the truth!) One of the issues we discussed was exactly what just transpired. We were in total agreement that we hoped never to become a burden on our offspring. As we all grieve the loss of his physical presence take solace in knowing that he is now with all those loved ones that preceded him to a better place.

“ I am so sorry to hear of John’s passing. My daughter Megan was his paper girl when she was young. He always teased her and tipped her well. I enjoyed talking to him after church at NAM until it’s closing. He was a very nice man and a dear neighbor. He will be missed. May he Rest In Peace.
