“ I met John at the US Naval Reserve Center on Forbes Avenue in Oakland. At the end of November 1968 we were sent by bus to Philadelphia Naval Shipyard to start our Active Duty commitment. We were sent to Subic Bay Naval Station, Phillippines. John to pick up his ship USS Hancock and me to stay at Subic. Every time John's ship pulled in to Subic I would meet John and we would hang out while on Liberty. Over the years since, we and our wives would visit in South Carolina, Florida, and Pittsburgh. We would stay in touch by phone frequently. John was a very special friend who I never will forget. May God bless him and have a special place for him. Our condolences to Karen and his children Kristin, Melsina and Johnny and grandchildren. May God have a special blessing for you all as well. You'll always remain in our heart and prayers. Love, Cliff and Paula Hayden
